I am sorry but Kimbo Slice takes all five slots as far as i am concerned. This idiot just talked trash about Bas Rutten and i loved Bas's response the man tells it like it is. I can't wait to see Kimbo get his assed whipped. I truly dislike this man. With most of the guys that have been mentioned we could at least say they have beaten some quality opponents but this guy is famous for doing jack*%#t.

well i originally didnt put brock because i figured you and tabwyo would get your two cents in about brock. i think mr lesnar is more of an idiot than a dbag. insulting the sponsors? even tito and bader know better than that. for someone who went to college, you would think he could talk more intellegently. hughes, he could be on a summers eve box with tito. what brock does comes off more idiotic than dbagish. the shamrock brothers are good ones too. tank abbott, even tito called him a d@#$%. when your fellow bags think your a bag, that is saying something. yes brock is cocky but he comes off more of a meathead to me.

I am surprised you guys hate Bader and CB so much, all you could really have seen of them is TUF where they didn't really come off that bad when compared to the guys that they shared a house with like Junie Browning, Jeremy May, Matt Riddle, Jesse Taylor, Shane Nelson and Krzysztof Soszynski. They may be a bit cocky but alot of MMA fighters are.

Junie Browning... Wow... Can't believe I overlooked this one. If Brock didn't have such a commanding lead in this category, then this title might have to go to Junie.

Let's all be honest here- if you call someone out in a message board where they are openly a member of, then you can expect for them to call you on it. Don't be surprised, just don't bash other members of the forum if you're expecting them to remain silent about it.

And "chumpstyle" would be a derogatory or slanderous noun that one might use to belittle another.

junie browning and brock are more retards than dbags. dbags are actually kind of intellegent. tito actually concocts a story to make himself look like a decent human being. brock , on the other hand, just tells it like it is. brock is more of an @$HOLE than a dbag. dbags are smooth and that whole thing with the bud light was the total opposite of smooth. tito has to be somewhat smooth to land a porn star although i know jenna wear the boots in the relationship. she probably has tito paint his nails bright pink and go "do it if you still want me to be mrs ortiz". brock on the other hand has yet to find a perfect women. he wants scientist to clone himself so they can wrestle eachother to see who gets to be the cool moderator and not.....

He's a massive tool- but he might have more of an understanding of MMA than Rampage. I'm not sure how Rampage remembers to breathe during his constant talking. I pretty much despise Rampage now. I've never been a fan of Rampage because I think that he's less than intelligent- but my goodness... His fighters are getting worse by listening to his instruction!

My favorite line of this season from Rampage-- when referring to guard passing (yes, something you learn during your first week of JJ) he says "these guys are just too green for this jiu-jitsu stuff." Well my goodness, I figured that by the time they got to the UFC that they would be advanced enough to learn how to pass guard. They should check out THIS SET.

Mir doesn't really talk smack. But when he does I like the way he does it. For one, knowing he's the deadliest HW off your back and not being afraid to say so isn't arrogant. It's the truth. In my book that isn't "smack". It's the painful truth. I expect a little gamesmanship before a fight but, if you care to notice, Mir loses with grace. He's the first to point out where he screwed up. That removes him from D-bagdom in my book.

Mir is a glaring example of "Jitz alone don't cut it no mo" though.

I love Mir, but he is a D-Bag. There is no getting around the guy's ego. He is so arrogant it is actually disgusting to some degree. Yeah, you are extremely dangerous off your back, stop reminding us. Arrogance is overbearing pride, no one can really deny that Mir is arrogant.

You kind of have to be confident to the point of arrogance, at least to some degree, to be willing to fight. Some just do it out loud. My wife defines it as a ridiculous display of ego. And as butthurt as I may get about it. If I remove myself completely from the situation and look at it from the outside in. I kind of have to agree. How much of an ego do I have to have to step into a cage and fight a guy? How confident do I have to be in my training and my ability to know I am going to win before I even step in the ring???

Oh my god bro, the Brock hate is ridiculous. Brock isn't a douche, you all are just uptight "old school folk". I was watching UFC 100, I saw his victory speech. I personally thought he was bad ass for it and laughed my ass off at the "bud light comment". Honestly, Brock has been bashed his whole career and has definitely been bashed and looked at as a joke since stepping in the ring/cage, so now when he shows some sort of retaliation he's a huge douche? Get outta here with that, he's a human like the rest of us.

Anyway my list is

1. Tito
2. Mir

- 3. BJ
- 4. rampage

Now rampage is a real douche, nobody bashed him, yet he finds humor in being an ass. Calling a fighter "titties" and making a huge poster of all Rashads fighters is douchbaggery at its finest....I laughed, but still.

Re:top 5 d-bags in mma

I am sure there will be a warning about the language from Richard so I won't bother.

Your boy there seems to get cross threaded with just about every employer he's ever had. "Bashed on his whole career" is a joke an a half. The only other "career" he's attempte beside MMA was pro football. And I haven't heard "former NFL star" in any of his introductions. So that musta not worked out too well for him. You don't need balls to bite the hand that spoon feeds you. You just have to be an idiot. That's been the common Lesnar thred in damned near everything he's been involved in.

I think you have the definition of "old skool" all wrong. Old skool players were polarized as to wich discipline was dominant to the point of ignoring every other aspect of the game. I'd like to think of guys Like Richard and myself as progressively "new skool". We recognize that it takes profficiency in every aspect to make you will rounded. In fact I think guys like Lesnar are "old skool". Thinking sheer brawn with a smattering of wrestling and a couple spazztastic hammer fists is all you need to be a great "fighter".

First off- malik... Watch the language- you won't be warned again.

As to your post- we're all entitled to our opinion. We've given more than enough reasons why we don't like Brock. He's an idiot, and remains the reigning champion of my top 5 d-bag list.

As for your statement about him being bad-ass for the things he said about Bud-Light. His both short-sighted and ill timed. He bashed the single largest financial sponsor that the UFC has. What an idiot. If you like watching the UFC and all of these fighters- then you better hope like hell that major corporate sponsors continue to pay huge bucks. If everyone treated those sponsors like Brock's dumb ass did- then you can kiss the idea of mainstream sports good-bye.

Would that be an idiot or d-bag move. Lets ask Rampage. What do you think Rampage? "I pity da FOOL!" Really with all the other crap that fighters have done like riding around town smashing into other vehicles in a truck with their self portrait on the side of it your going to put Brock at the top of the list.

I certainly don't approve of any of those actions either, Tron- but Scorpion King and car wrecks don't take first hand money out of the sport. While I agree that crap doesn't help- it's completely different. Plaxico Burrese shooting himself in the leg at a strip club wasn't a lovely image for the NFL players- but he didn't first hand openly bash the largest corporate sponsor of the NFL either.

To stand at the most monumental event (UFC 100) in front of the largest audience that the UFC has ever had (with more PPVs) and bash the largest corporate sponsor in the sport's history is just one of the MANY reasons that I think Brock is a complete idiot.

I don't care how much you guys swing from Brock's little HGH needle- I'm not jumping on board. No, I don't care for Rampage- but that doesn't mean that I'm going to like Brock any more or less.

Of course he was, Tron. Of course. It had nothing to do with 100 UFC fights or anything else- just meathead. Thank God that He sent us Brock Lesnar, otherwise MMA would have surely gone under. Ridiculous....

And yes- I'm just like Dana White, a contract nazi...

This is a little extreme, no? Much like arguing with a 3rd grade girl?

Simply put- if you don't have corporate sponsors, you don't have a mainstream sport. I would prefer to grow the sport, Tron. That's not a huge secret. I think that more and more people should get into MMA. See, I am always a fan of the sport moreso than the individual competitors. They will always come and go- the sport is what has to live on. By bashing the people that are allowing the sport to become more mainstream, you are hurting MMA. How is that not crystal clear? (I can't wait to see the spin you put on this one...)

Again- I think that what Rampage did should land him in prison. But that issue belongs in a criminal court, not in an octagon. What Brock did belongs on Dana's desk- not in criminal court. Try to keep them separated, Tron-- it's pretty simple when you break it down.

If your job doesn't require a drivers license should you be penalized at work for getting a speeding ticket on the weekend?? I'd say no. But that doesn't mean you can do doughnuts in the company parking lot.

The antics of MMA fighters per capita isn't even close to on par with those of pro footballers. MMA gets the bad press because of the "bloodsport" stigma that hangs over it.

BTW... senor "War Machine" just topped out my D-Bag list. Not only is the guy a top notch mental case. He's a Baroni wannabe. Ditched MMA for porn. Thumped a couple guys at a porn party. Is running from the cops and is bragging about it on twitter.
